

THE EXPLORER

A black and white photograph of a large, multi-story brick building, identified as Marquette High School. The building features numerous windows with white frames and a prominent central entrance. The image is slightly tilted and has a grainy, halftone texture.

MARQUETTE HIGH SCHOOL
PRESENTS THE 1981
EXPLORER

Mark Pfaff

The Senior Class dedicates this 1981 yearbook to the memory of our classmates Mark Pfaff and Mike Tunehorst.

The memories come of how you knew them; always having fun, not letting anything get in your way

You remember the good with the bad, mostly the good

Time passes and heals the broken hearts, but time still leaves a scar on your heart, which is never to be healed

It bleeds, again, everytime you turn around, looking back on the past and asking why?

Why did they have to go?

But life still goes on, as it is said so many times

Our own lives go on, taking us forward into our futures, leaving behind a part of ourselves and bringing with us the memories of our friends living and laughing with us, forever.

D. H.

Mike Tunehorst

Among these memories of the past here is a glimpse of the future.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. The Department of Health (1999) has also published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners.
